

Tesis Labs partners with Georgia's Premier Health to offer preventive testing

Phoenix-based genetic sequencing company Tesis Labs is partnering with Atlanta-based Premier Health to offer genetic testing to patients in the state, Tesis said Sept. 15.

The testing is intended to provide an early warning for chronic or hereditary conditions. Tesis will initially perform testing for Premier Health out of its Lafayette, Colo., facility, eventually moving the testing services to Premier's Georgia sites.